with Spiced Fruit Jam and Crostini 14.00

French Abbaye de Belloc

Traditional, farmhouse, unpasteurized, hard cheese made from sheep's milk. The cheese was founded by Benedictine monks, and has a firm, dense, rich, and creamy texture. The taste resembles burnt caramel.

Cypress Grove's Mt. McKinley Chèvre

A sharp, deep, earthy, and nutty flavor with goat "over notes" helps describe this cheese, which is one of the most aged goat milk cheeses made in the US.

Laura Chenel's Cabecou

Made with 100% cultured, pasteurized goat's milk, these rich and creamy chèvre disks swim in a sea of extra virgin olive oil, bay leaves, and other herbs and spices.

Portuguese Bica de Queijo

A raw farmhouse cheese from Portugal made from a blend of cow, goat, and sheep's milk. Bica has a distinctive yet mild, buttery flavor and a satiny texture.

Cypress Grove's Humboldt Fog

With a central layer and outer covering of ash, this goat tome ripens with a soft white exterior mold. When cut, it is reminiscent of our early morning fog.
